

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and Concordia University Journalism Internship

CBC News is at the forefront of local digital and broadcast journalism in Montreal.

At CBC Montreal, we gather, produce and broadcast news in Quebec for CBC Radio One, CBC.CA/Montreal and the CBC News app, and CBC's video and streaming platforms including on FAST, YouTube, TikTok and on TV.

We are currently seeking one intern for the Winter 2025 session, to work in Montreal with CBC digital and current affairs. This is ONLY open to graduate diploma students.

Internships Goals

You will have the opportunity to gain practical experience at CBC Montreal over 10 weeks (160 hours). You will work as a researcher on Daybreak (5 weeks) and Let's Go (5 weeks). You will learn how to pitch stories, conduct pre-interviews and write scripts.

Internship Application Process

- CV
- Letter of intent from the student.
- Two samples of your written work.
- One sample of audio or visual work

Application Deadline: November 14, 2025

Please email sara.dubreuil@cbc.ca

There is also an interview at CBC as part of the process.

Requirements

- 160 hours for-credit service. Approximately 16 hours per week for 10 weeks at CBC News, Montreal. This amounts to 3 credits at Concordia.

- Note – Students undertaking these internships are not excused from classes or other courses.
- This internship is offered under JOUR 550 for a total of three credits. Students must obtain departmental approval to enrol in this course.

Candidate Selection Criteria

- Graduate Diploma journalism student.
- Curious and critical thinker.
- Passionate about journalism.
- Strong work ethic: meeting deadlines, attention to detail, dedication, initiative, team player.
- Strong writing and broadcasting skills.
- Bilingual, English and French.

Thank you for your interest,

Sarah Dubrueil,

Executive Producer, CBC News and Current Affairs,

Montreal, QC