

Internship: Global Montreal on Global TV

Title: Global Montreal Intern

Type: Unpaid Internship Organization: Global News part of Corus Entertainment Inc.

Location: 1010 Sainte-Catherine St. W. 7th floor, Montreal

When: Winter 2026

Duration: 160-hours (About two days a week for ten weeks).

Internship Summary

Global Montreal is seeking Journalism or Communications students, to intern for Winter 2026. The successful candidate will be a dynamic person with strong writing skills, understanding local news around them, basic knowledge of television production procedures and equipment, and a genuine interest in all things Montreal. As our intern, you will join the team who prepares and delivers Montreal's most local nightly newscast. You'll work alongside our talented professionals, for a hands-on experience that will enhance your studies. If this sounds like the challenge you are looking for, we look forward to meeting you.

Main Responsibilities

- Write scripts and research ideas;
- Book interviews;
- Assist with the research and production of topical 'streeters' to support current affairs segments;
- Prepare and post materials to website
- Go out on the road with reporters and shadow, work together
- Other duties as assigned
- Qualifications
- Be enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program in broadcasting, journalism, communications or other related fields;
- Be eligible for university credit for this internship;
- Be seeking a placement under a formal, credited internship program;
- Be available weekdays or weekends for day/evening shifts;
- Excellent command of written English and the ability to speak/read both English and French;
- Highly motivated with proven multi-tasking and time management skills. Able to work in a fast-paced environment;
- Basic knowledge of video editing and TV production experience will be considered assets

How To Apply:

By November 28, 2025, send a letter of interest along with your CV, including a reference to: Julie.turcotte@globalnews.ca indicating “Global Montreal Internship” in the subject field.

Kindly note that this is an unpaid, for-credit internship. The successful candidate will be required to commit 160 hours to the internship (about two days a week for ten weeks). Interns are responsible for fulfilling all obligations to their coursework. If you are the successful candidate, you will be registered in J450/550 and are required to file a report with the internship coordinator upon completion of your internship.